HOMECOMING

Left-the crowning of Maureen Sommerlot as the Homecoming Queen of 1971.

Homecoming takes much preparation on many people's parts. Here Deb and Marge unroll crepe paper while Rich gives his approval.

Freshman Tom Delegardelle, a student council member, sprays a design of a helmet on a napkin stuffed decoration which was hung in the center of the gym. The student council was in charge of the Homecoming activities.

D.H.S. WELCOMES CHRISTMAS

Gill Poyner sings "Birthday of a King."

Deb Wachel stirs up Christmas cheer.

Soprano Renee Moen carols " No Candle Was There or No Fire."

The Madrigal communicates Christmas spirit singing "African Noel" and "We Wish You the Merriest."

Girls' Glee spreads cheer with "The Christmas Song," "The Drummer Boy," and "Do You Hear What I Hear?"

Jeanne Wissink sings "O Leave Your Sheep."

The band bows after their last selection "Tis the Season to be Jolly."

The Mixed Chorus lauds the Christmas message with the "Hallelujah Chorus."

BLITHE SPIRIT

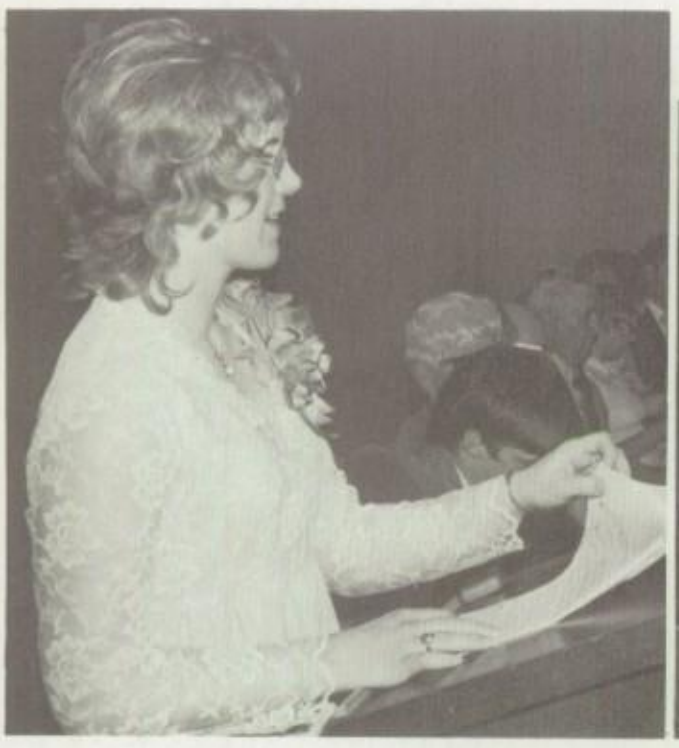
Characters
Duane Strempke--Mr. Condomine
Jeanne Wissink--Mrs. Condomine
Kim McMahon--Elvira Condomine
Sandi Sage--Madame Arcati
Jim Benson--Dr. Bradman
Karen Strempke--Mrs. Bradman
Liz Wheeler--Edith

Dabbling in the occult can be humorous as is shown in BLITHE SPIRIT. Mr. Condomine, however, did not think it was so funny. His first wife returns from the dead determined to have her husband with her forever. Her devious plan backfires and his second wife joins her instead. It ends up that both wives come back and haunt him.

DRIFTING

The prom night starts off with a scrumptious banquet.

Jeff Thompson, junior class president, gives the welcome.



Karen reads the will.

Deb reads the prophecy.

Ruth slakes her thirst at the water hole.

The junior sextet provides delightful entertainment.

The steady rock beat of the Pages livens everyone's spirits.

DREAMS

Jim, senior class president, gives the thank-you.

The music put everyone in a dancing mood.

The juniors worked hard to transform the gym into a ballroom.

The only job that remains is the clean-up.

The banquet this year was held in the community hall with the prom following in the gym. The juniors worked many hours hoping to make this the best prom yet.

The queen and king were Marilyn Kwolek and Ron Reichen, the princess and prince, Renee Moen and Tom Anderson.

Right: The king strikes a pose like his hero, Broadway Joe.

PRESENTING . . . SPRING

It takes many hours of practice to have an outstanding production.

When without a partner, use a chair.

Jeanette defies the rule of no gum on stage.

The boys' big chance to shine comes in "Jeremiah Was a Bullfrog."

Jeanette takes a swig to cool off between songs.

The Swing band produces good vibrations.

VIBRATIONS

Cindy accompanies Delvin in "Color My World."

The ninth and tenth grade girls discover the stage with "Brand New Key."

Combined choruses start off the show with "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing."

The trio harmonizes with "Love Story."

The second chorus dresses up for "Cherish."

The Lennon sisters sing a sweet melody.

MORE VIBRATIONS

R. C. 's drums draws raves from the crowd.

The senior girls relive their childhood with Mickey Mouse.

Laurel and Julie had a new act this year, parallel bars.

Melody livens up the show with "Yakety Sax."

Kathy touched the people's hearts with "Brians Song."

Nancy serandes with "Summertime."

Jeanne sings "Funny Girl" from the Broadway musical.

The boys feel right at home with "Elly Jane."

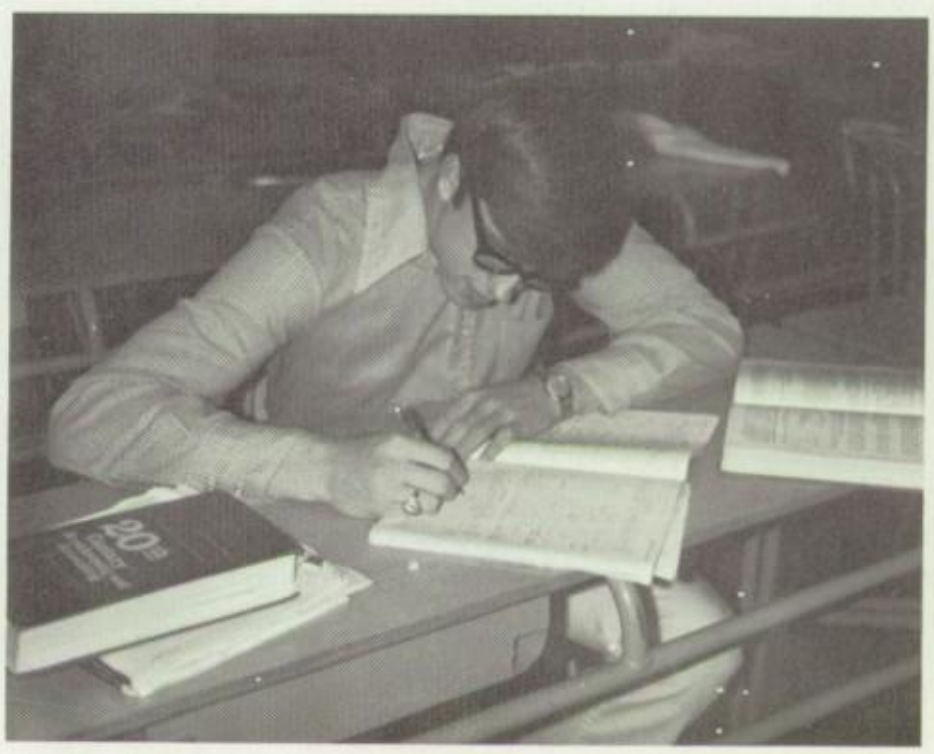
"Rainy Days and Mondays" doesn't get this chorus down.

SHOP

The shop is very busy: doing wood working, metal work and rebuilding cars, tractors, cycles and lawn mowers. The underclassmen take a course in drafting before actually working on projects.

BUSINESS

The business department provides education in the fields of bookkeeping, shorthand, typing, and secretarial office practice. With these skills, the students may enter business colleges or find secretarial employment.



HOME ECONOMICS

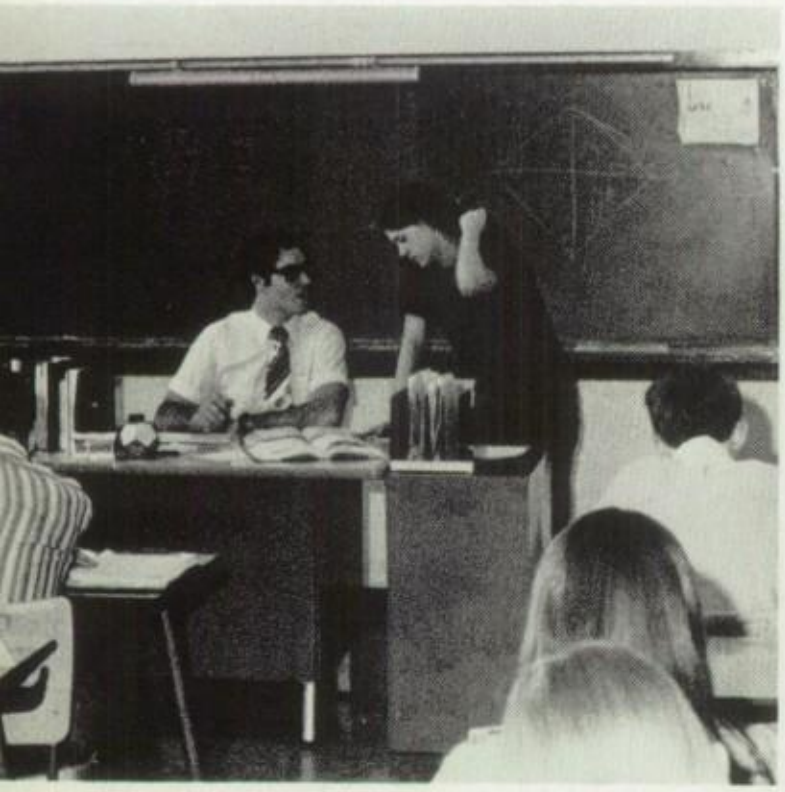
The home-ec girls learned how to cook, sew, decorate cakes, make candles, make whimsy-dip flowers, and other domestic skills.

Nancy Crabtree takes her pie from the oven.

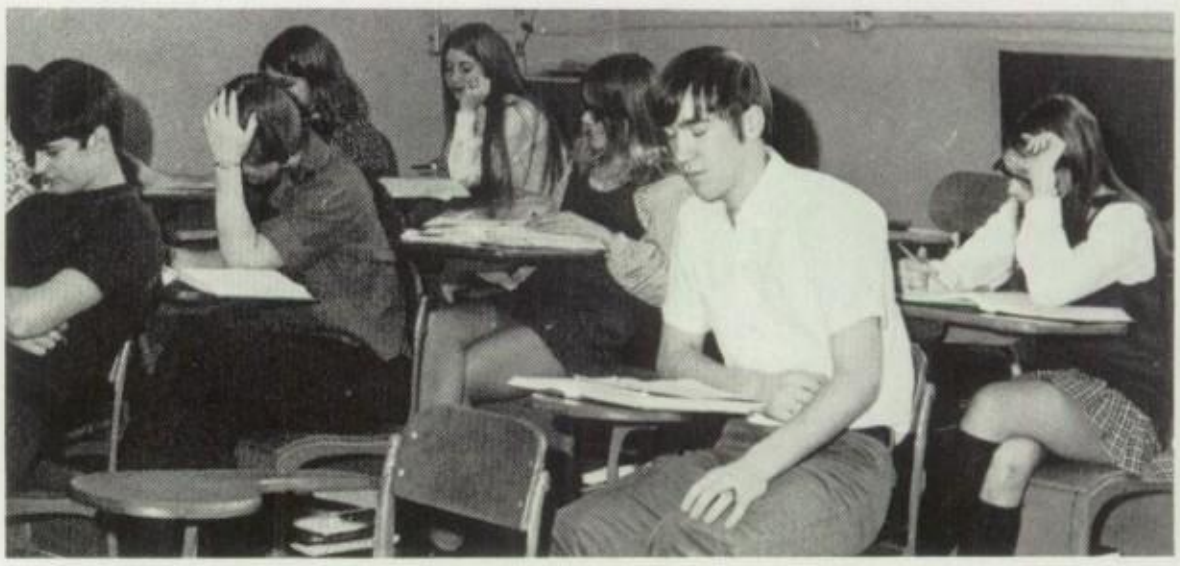


Janice Anderson consults Mr. Luloff about a perplexing geometric proof.

MATH

The math courses, Algebra I and II, 9th and 10th General Math, Geometry, and Math I2, prepare the students for further math courses in addition to providing a challenge.

The math super-brains of D.H.S. --The Trig Club.



But Mr. Thomas, we don't understand.

The rabbit piñata conveys the Christmas message of peace.

Mrs. Barnes drills the dialogue into her Spanish students.

The three witches anxiously await Macbeth's meeting.

The Juniors' rare moment of study.

Good vibs flow through the Communication Circle.

Sherry searches for clues in another round of College English Password.

Jim adjusts the Bunsen burner while Roy controls the generator.

Jim discovers that sulfuric acid burns holes in pants.

On behalf of the team I would like to thank the graduating seniors for their contributions to the team throughout the season. Although we suffered a losing season, the team put forth some good efforts in a conference which saw four of the eight teams go to the district tournaments. Several underclassmen had the opportunity to see varsity action this year, which should greatly improve our chances for a successful season next year.

Although the basketball season record, 4-14, seems dismal, it represents a marked improvement over the past few years. The four wins cannot show the close games, and the tremendous improvement the boys made. Dunkerton is looking forward to the next season as one of continued effort and success on the part of the Raiders.

THE RAIDER ROOKIES

Do I get to start?

Sally directs the stack.

Coach Smith confers with the team.

We were very proud of our junior high boys this year. They won four games this year and lost three by five points or less. While playing together as a team, there were also some individual stand outs. Jerry Gallmeyer was our high scorer and Mike Magee was out play maker and ball handler. These boys should make a fine contribution to our high school athletic program in the future.

This year we had an inexperienced team that showed much improvement during the year. Winning is not nearly as important in junior high as developing a good attitude and learning the fundamentals of basketball. Below: The opening tip off.

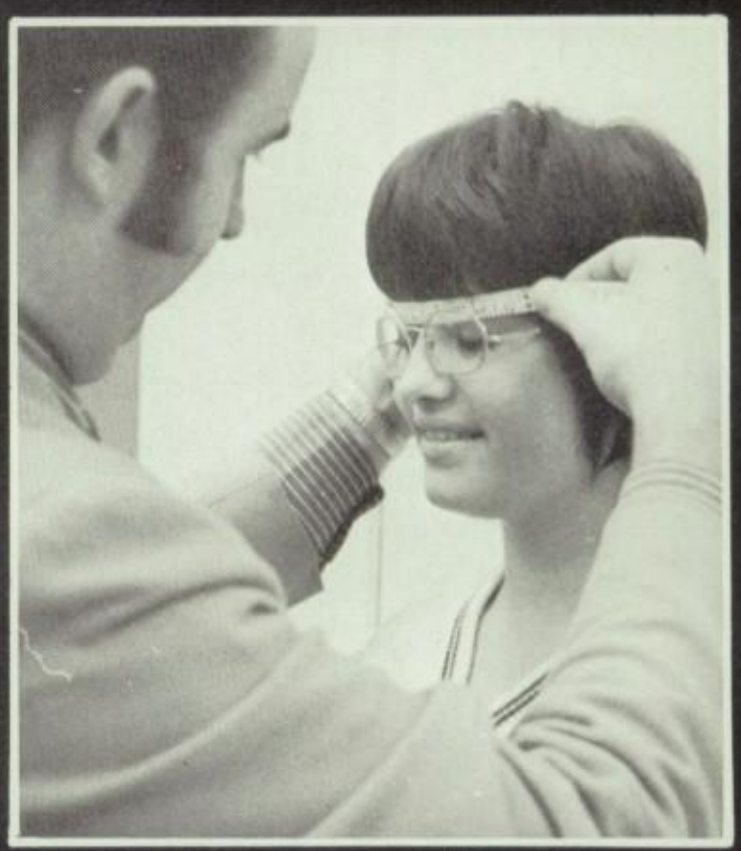
Duck

The fellow seniors ecstatic during a fire drill hoping the school will burn down.



Sharon's head gets measured for a cap to wear on the big night.

Motto: The great desire of man is not so much to be agreed with as to be understood. Flower: Silver Chalice. Colors: Purple and Silver.

COMMENCEMENT

Mr. Simester happily passes out robes.

The class of 1972 anticipate each member's big moment.

This year's honor students: Jeanne Wissink, Nancy Schmidt, Cindy Mills, Marilyn Kwolek, Diane Clubine, also the winner of a perfect attendance award, and Sue Boots proudly display their awards.

This year's commencement, held on May 22, ushered in the beginning of many experiences for the class of 1972. Inspired by the words of speaker, Tom Peterson, they look forward to school, service, and careers.

David Myers receives his diploma.

This year's Citizenship Award winner, Duane Strempke accepts his award.

ELEMENTARY CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Christmas Spirit: "Put On a Happy Face"

Suzy Snowflake and her snowflake classmates.

Father Time comes to welcome the holidays.

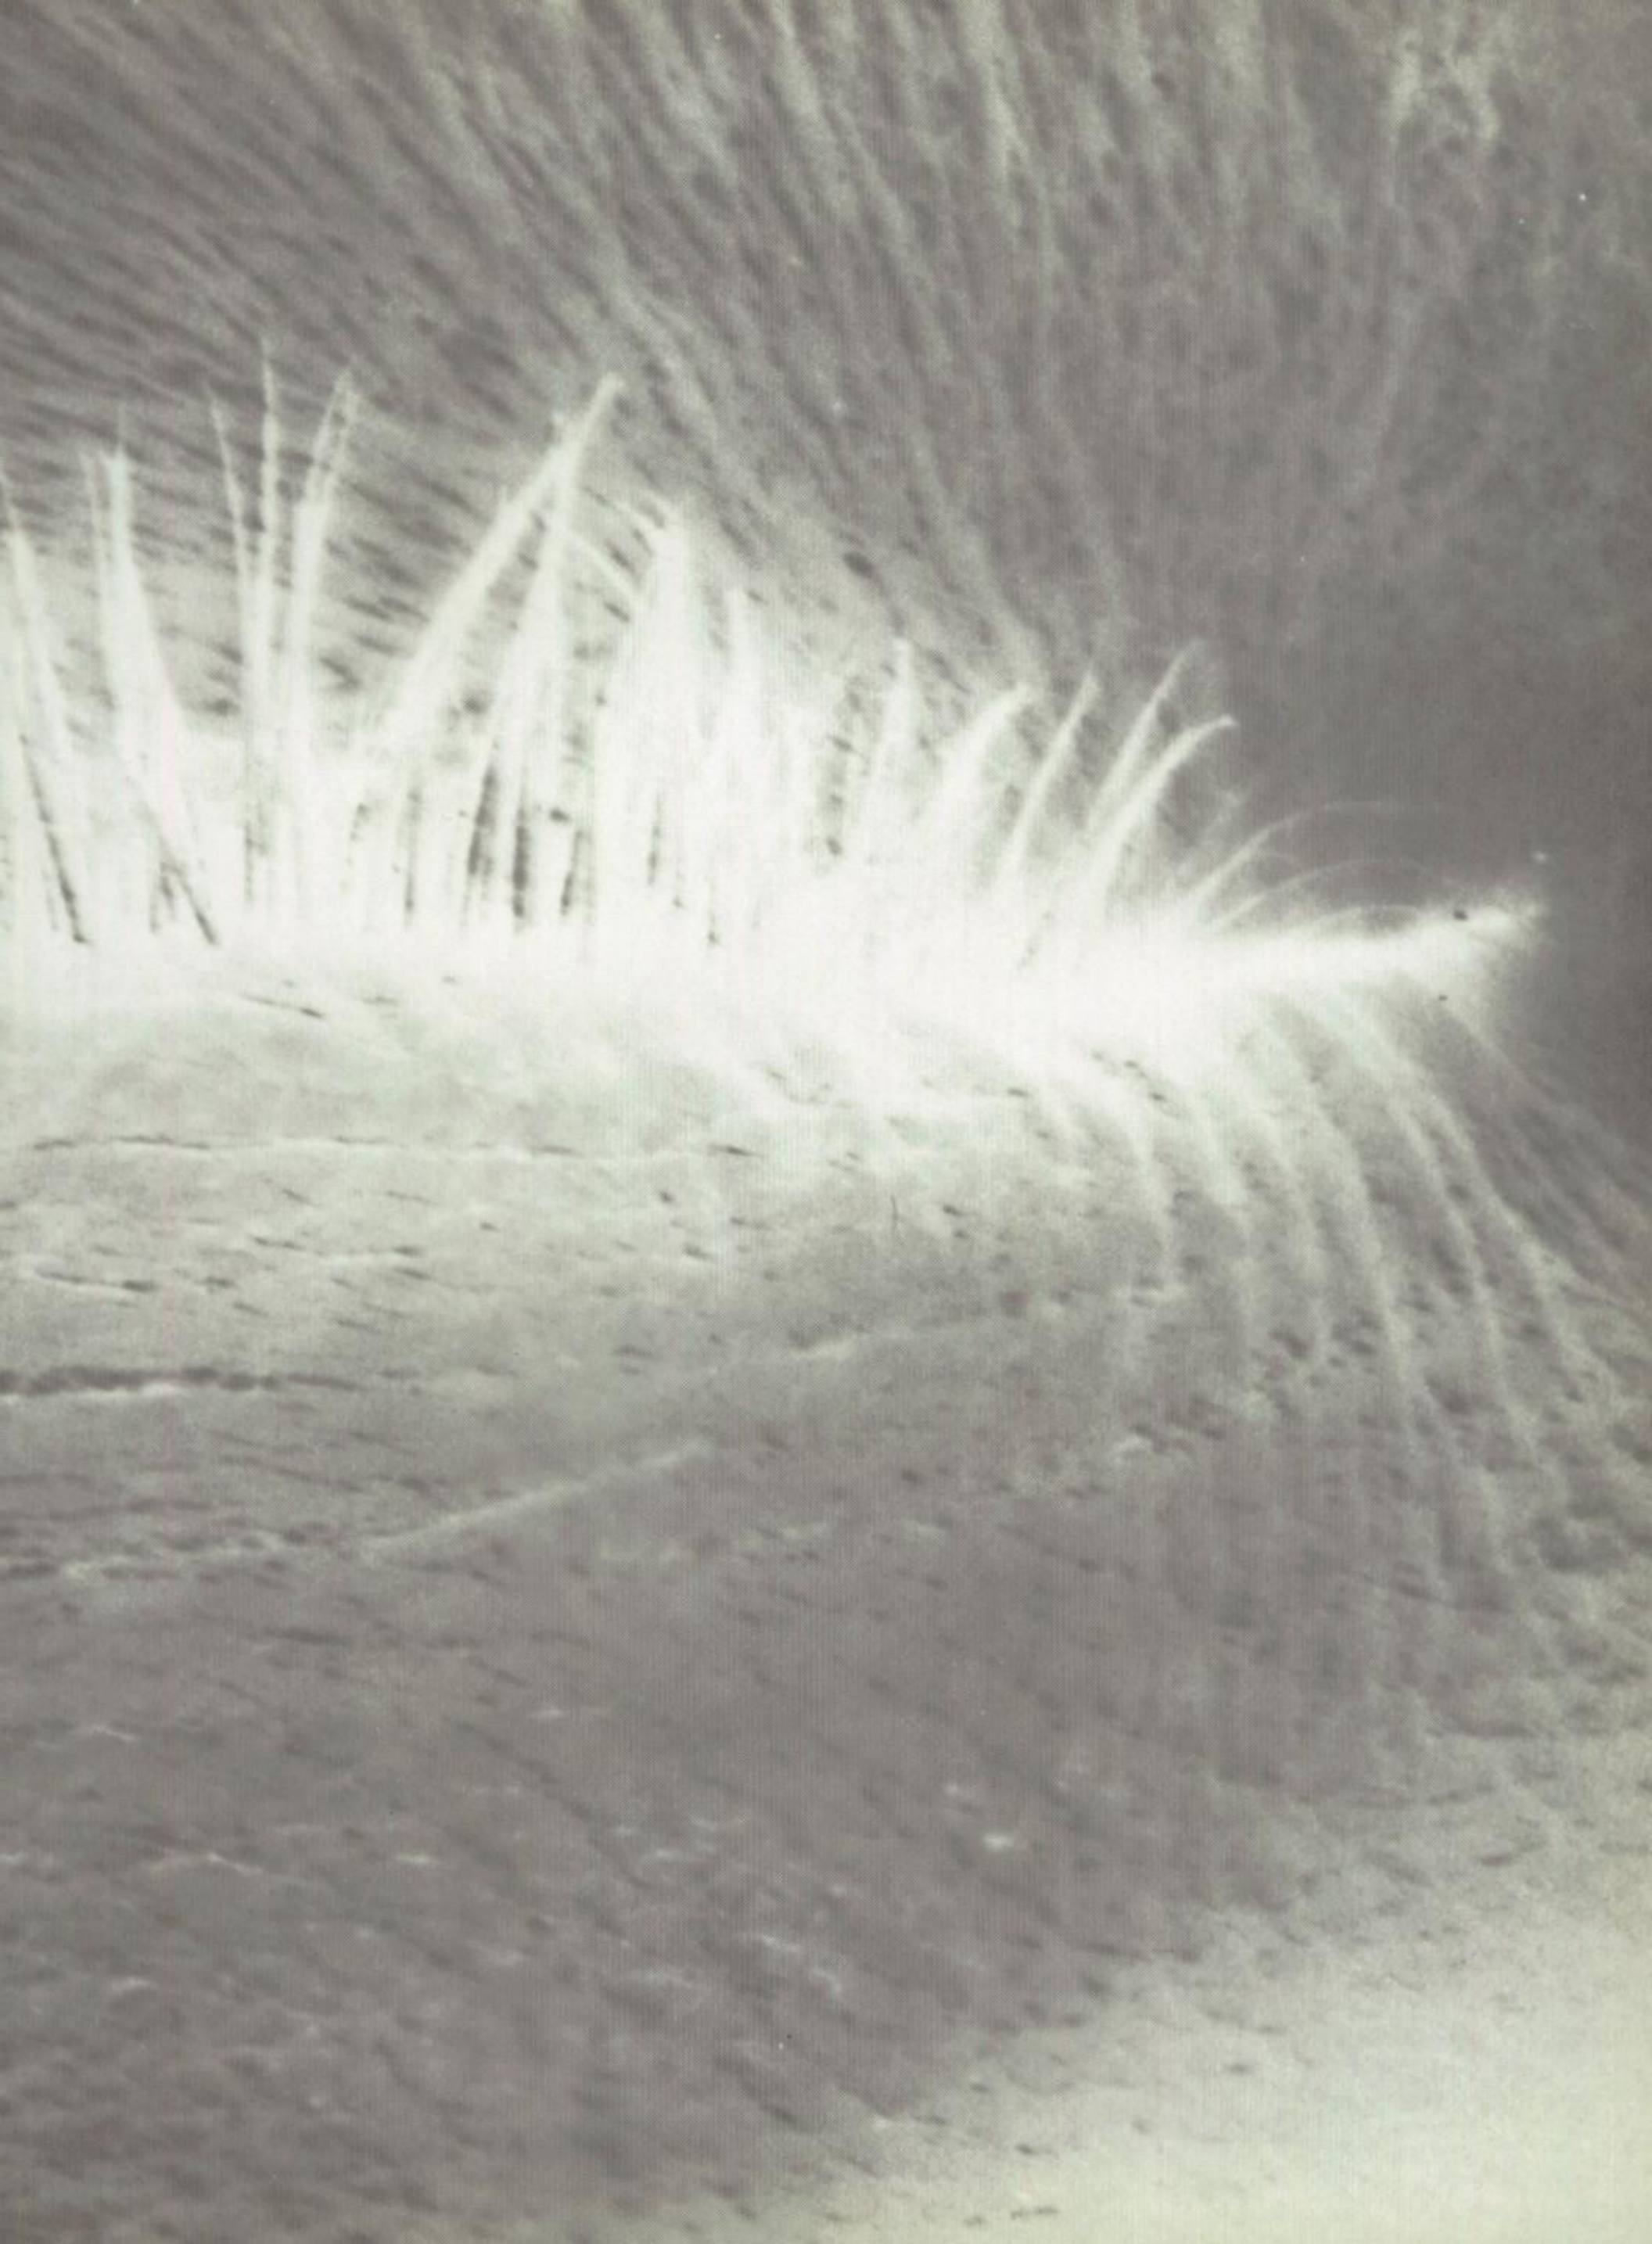
Santa's little helpers are tired.

"Little Red Caboose, Chug! Chug! Chug!

The dolls cry, "Mama!"

The Christmas Chorus of third graders.

Out of Santa's Toyshop comes everyone ready for Chirstmas Eve.



And now the eye closes on 1972, but its spirit will continue as Raider INSIGHT grows through contrasting experiences: happiness, sorrow, joy and love, fascination and intrigue.
